FORT WAYNE, IND., MONDAY, APRIL 28, 1902.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

EXTOLS FUNSTON

A KANSAS CONGRESSMAN TO THE RESCUE.

THE STATE IS PROUD OF HIM

GEN. JACOB SMITH DENOUNCED BY DEMOCRATS.

OLEO BILL PASSES SENATE

THE DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS.

Washington, April 28.—This was District of Columbia day in the house under the rules, but the regular order was postponed until Monday next in order that the house might proceed with the consideration of the agricultural bill. The naval appropriation bill was reported and the house then resumed the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill.

Mr. Curtis, of Kansas, made a brief, but fervent defense of General Funston against the criticism to which he had been subjected. "The people of Kansas," he began, "are proud of the brave and daring record of gallant Fred Funston. (Applause on the republican side.) He has been criticized here for an act which for daring of conception and execution ranks with the greatest feats of arms he captured the new George Washington—Aguinaldo."

If another had accomplished what General Funston did, he said, the democrats would have made him their candidate for president. He called attention to the fact that his promotion had been recommended by General Wheaton and General MacArthur, both soldiers of the civil war, soldiers who knew more of war and the rules of war than all the politicians in this country combined. "And his commission," he added, "was signed by the greatest president we have ever had—the soldier, statesman and martyr, William McKinley." (Applause.)

Mr. Feely (of Illinois) submitted some remarks in support of the contention that the laws of neutrality were being violated by this government in allowing the shipment of mules and horses to South Africa for use by the British against the Boer republics.

He said that public sentiment in the United States favored the cause of the Boers and insisted that neither secretly nor openly should our government extend aid to the British. Mr. Feely and Mr. Gillett (of Massachusetts) clashed upon the interpretation of the treaty of Washington which bound the United States and England as to what constitutes war materials.

SIBLEY RAKES SMITH.

Mr. Sibley (of Pennsylvania) followed with a bitter denunciation of Gen. Jacob Smith. He said he had always defended the course of the administration and had believed in expansion, but when it came to orders such as had been issued by General Smith, humanity seemed to have marched backward. "I have heard of Timor, the Tartar and of the Saracen scourge, but, thank God, it took eighteen centuries after Calvary to produce a General Smith."

He declared that General Smith should be discharged in disgrace. "He admits he issued the orders to make Samar a howling wilderness," said Mr. Sibley, "and to kill all over ten years of age. Such a man should not be permitted to stay in the army until the sun goes down. He is a disgrace not only to himself, but to every man who wears the uniform of his country. No man can justify such orders, no matter how adroit may be the plea of his lawyers and defenders. He admits he issued the orders and I hope there is enough courage, patriotism and Christianity at the other end of the avenue to see that he is stripped of his uniform within forty-eight hours."

Mr. Sibley was vigorously applauded by the democrats and some of the republicans.

Mr. Williams (Mississippi) heavily endorsed Mr. Sibley's onslaught upon General Smith, whom he described as a "brute in uniform." "But I am a little afraid," he continued, "that he does not strike the evil in the right quarter. It is the system which should be struck at, not the man who unconsciously carries out the spirit of the system. Wherever there is a war of conquest against a weak and inferior colored people deeds of brutality naturally occur. The chief danger is not the injury to the weak race, but that the temptation to tyranny will react upon the strong race and make brutes of its soldiers. For that reason such wars should be avoided." He agreed with the gentleman from Pennsylvania that there can be

ACTOR SOL SMITH RUSSELL IS DEAD

Washington, April 28.—Sol Smith Russell, the actor, died at the Richmond hotel in this city at 2:10 o'clock this afternoon of peripneumonia. Mr. Russell had been ill for some time from this malady, but during the past few days the disease took a serious turn and since early morning the end had been hourly expected. Those present at the bedside of the veteran actor were Mrs. Russell, Miss Alice Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Berger and Edward I. Rosenfeld. Mr. Russell was 54 years old.

The deceased will be buried in Rock Creek cemetery near this city.

no justification for a civilized man to issue an order to lay waste a whole country and kill everybody, including children over ten years of age.

IN THE SENATE.

Washington, April 28.—When the senate convened today Mr. Harris, of Kansas, presented the following telegram he had received from the Kansas millers association: "Kansas millers, on account of foreign discriminations, with the best wheat in the world at their door, are not producing over one-third of their full capacity. Unless your committee on foreign relations can give us relief through reciprocal concessions, placing our millers on an equal basis with foreign mills, many of our mills will shut down indefinitely and some of them will be forced to the wall. In our distress we look to our senators for relief."

The telegram was referred to the committee on foreign relations.

At his own request Mr. Carmack, of Tennessee, was excused from service on the committee on education and labor.

The oleomargarine bill, as it came from the house, was taken up and Mr. Culbertson, of Texas, moved that it be referred to the committee on agriculture. The motion was defeated 26 to 35.

The senate concurred in the house amendments to the oleomargarine bill, which passes the measure and sends it to the president.

At 2 o'clock the senate took up the Philippine government bill and Mr. Simmons, of North Carolina, addressed the senate in opposition to the measure.

THE SULTANA SURVIVORS

REUNION TO BE HELD HERE TOMORROW.

Congressman Robinson to be Here to Speak—Program for Veterans' Celebration.

Tomorrow in this city will be held the eighteenth reunion of the National Sultana Survivors' association, April 29th being the generally accepted official anniversary of the occasion of the disaster. The program has already been freely promulgated and will commence tomorrow morning with a business session of the survivors' association, to be held at the assembly room of the court house. In the afternoon the visitors, of whom about twenty-five or thirty are expected, will be taken about the city in carriages and at 5 o'clock a banquet will be given at Standard hall. At the banquet over a hundred guests will be seated and answers to toasts will be given by Samuel M. Foster, Dr. A. P. Buchanan, E. J. Kennedy, of Berea, Ohio, and Congressman Robinson. In the evening a short down-town parade will be made, which will be participated in by all the military societies of the city, headed by the City band, and will terminate at the Saengerbund hall, where the concluding exercises, an old-fashioned campfire, will be held. At the campfire there will be music galore by the City band, songs by the combined city quartets, short stories by "the boys," and addresses by Judge Taylor, Mayor Berghoff, W. P. Madden, of Xenia, Ohio, and Lieutenant Governor Glibert.

The reunion is significant from the fact that it is the first one of its character ever held upon Indiana soil. Township Trustee Louis Schimreyer, the only Fort Wayne survivor, says he expects the attendance to be very small and the enthusiasm to be very great.

MANY WERE HURT

WALLEN SCENE OF ACCIDENT

COLLIDED WITH A FREIGHT PARTLY ON SWITCH.

HOW CASUALTIES OCCURRED

NUMBER OF INJURED LARGE, BUT NONE FATAL.

As a result of a wreck of the Rome City excursion train at Wallen at 8 o'clock last evening three trainmen and twenty-eight passengers were injured, four of them seriously. The list of unfortunate, as furnished The Sentinel by Supt. J. W. Hunter, is as follows:

—Employees—
W. H. Logan, brakeman, back wrenched.

J. Gallagher, fireman, slight cuts about head.
A. J. Nickell, engineer, slight cuts in forearm and hand.

INTO A FREIGHT TRAIN.
The excursion train was returning from Rome City with about 125 passengers and it crashed into the side of freight train No. 23 at the south entrance of the Wallen siding, six miles out from Fort Wayne. The impact was of sufficient force to upset the engine and four freight cars and to tilt the tender of the locomotive up at an angle of about 45 degrees, but none of the passenger cars left the rails, none were damaged and none of the passengers were injured.

Engineer A. J. Nichols and Fireman W. Gallagher, however, were injured at this time, being compelled to jump from the cab to avoid what seemed inevitable death were they to remain at their post. Applying the air brakes and reversing the engine, Mr. Nichols shouted to his fireman to jump and he immediately followed.

The accident which resulted in the injury to the others did not occur until a half hour after the collision. At that time the engine which was bringing freight train No. 24 down from the north was uncoupled from its own train and hitched on to the rear car of the excursion train for the purpose of moving the cars sufficiently to take up the slack and allow the removal of the coupling pin at the point of connection with the tender. The instant the cars moved the lower wheels of the tank sank deeper into the soft earth and the tender rolled over into the ditch, taking with it the combination baggage and smoker and the two following coaches. The fourth coach was saved by its coupling breaking.

THROWN IN A HEAP.
The occupants of the coaches were thrown in a heap at the bottom of the cars and the scene which followed was a most distressing one. Men and women, some bleeding from wounds sustained by broken glass, were scrambling for doors, the strong, in some cases totally regardless of the safety of their less fortunate companions, jumping to their feet and walking upon the bodies of those not yet able to rise.

Fortunately for all, the greater number of the excursionists were in the rear car, and as this remained upright, they were in a position, with the assistance of the citizens of Wallen, to go to the rescue, and soon had the injured out of the overturned cars.

Those most seriously injured were carried into the houses at Wallen, which were freely opened to them, and as soon as possible received medical attention.

News of the collision was telegraphed to the officials and the wreck car was speedily dispatched to the scene.

RELIEF TRAIN SENT.

Mr. Hunter was on this car and did not learn of the more serious accident until he reached the scene. He immediately ordered out a relief train and a switch engine with two coaches and carrying Dr. A. J. McCoscar, Dr. H. A. Durnell and Dr. Erick Crull, was soon flying towards Wallen. An engine was also dispatched to Hometown for Dr. Greenwell, and that surgeon was also soon on the scene assisting in dressing the wounds of the victims.

As soon as possible the injured were placed upon the relief train and brought to this city, where carriages and cabs were in waiting at the depot to convey them to their homes.

Engineer Herman Durnell was the only one taken to the hospital, the nature and extent of his injuries being for a time in doubt. Mr. Durnell went forward after the collision and assisted in making preparations for disconnecting the coaches and the tender. Just before the cars overturned he had returned to his seat and was thrown violently out of it when the accident happened.

ENGINEER'S INJURIES.

Dr. McCoscar, who is attending Mr. Durnell and who personally visited all the injured today, says that the engineer is suffering from a bad scalp wound and slight contusion of the brain, but he believes the patient will be all right in a few days. Dr. McCoscar also says that none of the others are fatally injured. He says he believes Miss Allen and Mr. Hedges the most seriously injured. The latter was on the platform of a car when it overturned and was thrown a considerable distance into the ditch, sustaining painful injuries to the back. He was also made more uncomfortable by being thrown into a pool in the ditch and being soaked with water.

Miss Allen had her arm jammed through a ventilator on the roof of the car with sufficient force to break the limb in two places. She also received some painful cuts from broken glass. The lady is a sister Mrs. Henry Freeman, of Spy Run avenue, at whose home she is now resting under the care of Dr. M. F. Porter.

ONE MAN'S EXPERIENCE.

George Strasser, a machinist at the Bass works, was in the third car from the engine and the last one to turn over on its side. He said:

"The car had about fifty people, half of them ladies. I was about to pass out of the door and as I took hold of the knob, I felt the car going over. I braced myself against the end and when the fall came, was not injured. I immediately scrambled through the door and from the outside assisted in getting the others out. Among the first to be removed thus was Miss Allen, who had an arm broken in two places. When the car went over, the passengers all fell to the lower side, of course, and before they could get upon their feet, some man called 'fire.' This added to the confusion for an instant. Strong men sprang up and some of them started for the doors, walking over men and women who had not yet arisen to their feet. But this was only for an instant and the occupants of the car soon became comparatively quiet and awaited their turn to pass through the door, the strong helping the less fortunate through the opening first. Two men held up the door from the inside and assisted in passing the ladies and wounded men out and the car was emptied in a very few minutes. Some of the ladies who were not visibly injured were so helpless from fright that they had to be carried to the door and passed out without the least assistance from themselves. Others who were pretty severely hurt, retained their senses and were able to get out of the car with very little assistance."

LOSS NOT HEAVY.

The property loss is not as great as could be expected from so serious an affair. The passenger engine was pretty badly damaged and now lies on her side in the ditch with her tender where they were thrown last night by the wreck crew in their haste to get the tracks clear. The front end of the engine is caved in.

SAMAR PACIFIED

NEWS OF GUEVARA'S SURRENDER CONFIRMED.

INSURRECTION AT AN END

THREE THOUSAND BOLOMEN QUIT FIGHTING.

THE SMITH COURT MARTIAL

MAJOR WALLER TESTIFIES AS TO BUTCHERY ORDER.

Manila, April 28.—The surrender of the insurgents of the island of Samar, headed by General Guevarra, who succeeded General Lukban in that island, has been officially effected, though some of the southern ports are yet to be heard from. It is believed, however, that the insurrection in Samar is ended.

TRIAL OF GENERAL SMITH.

Manila, April 28.—The trial by court martial of Gen. Jacob H. Smith on the charge of conduct prejudicial to good order and discipline, was resumed here today. Major Littleton W. T. Waller, of the marine corps, testified to receiving from General Smith the orders to "kill and burn" and render Samar "a howling wilderness," previously referred to in these dispatches. The natives of Samar, said Major Waller, were more treacherous and implacable than the tribesmen of the Boudan. Without General Smith's drastic measures the war there would not have been ended. General Smith never intended killing women or children.

Corporal Pritchard, of the Ninth infantry, who took part in the fight at Gandara, testified that he saw boys of twelve years of age fighting and slashing with bolos.

Sergeant Bonicastle, of the Ninth infantry, an Apache, testified regarding Capt. P. K. Schofield's fight in Dapdap, province of Samar, against Dios Dios fanatics. He saw a soldier attacked by two boys under fifteen, one armed with a bolo and the other with a dagger.

Private Nickle, of the Ninth infantry, explained the dangers and difficulties of service in the island of Samar.

Private Nanjot, of the Tenth cavalry, told how Americanists (natives friendly to the Americans) were butchered there in cold blood.

Sergeant Brunley, of the Ninth infantry, a survivor of the Balangiga massacre, described that disaster, including the mutilation of the American dead by the Samar natives.

Five men of the constabulary have been ambushed at San Juan Del Monte, near Manila. One of the party was killed and one was wounded. The Filipino band consisted of thirty lathrons, well armed, nearly all of them carrying Mauser rifles. A force of constabulary is scouring the neighborhood for the bandits.

CONDITIONS IN SAMAR.

Manila, April 28.—More than 3,500 rebels on the island of Samar have surrendered within the last two days and given up their arms to the American authorities. Chief of the capitulating forces is Guevarra, who succeeded General Lukban last February as the commander of the entire insurgent forces of the island. General Guevarra, together with forty officers, 189 men and 161 rifles, is now in custody of General Frederick Dent Grant on an American gunboat at the mouth of the Gandara river, west coast of the island. He is held, with his aids, and the force that comprised his entire personal command, as a prisoner of war.

Three hundred rebels, with 131 rifles, were on the march to Catabogan, the capital of the island, to surrender to the American authorities when the message announcing the surrender of General Guevarra and his entire personal command was sent to headquarters in this city by General Grant. Three thousand bolomen, with twenty-eight rifles, surrendered Saturday at Sulat.

BELIEVES REVOLT CRUSHED.

The yielding of these large bodies of insurgents is construed by the United States officials to mean that the rebellion in Samar is over. Without a leader, deserted by their staunchest warriors and with the Americans taking advantage of every opportunity to crush implacable foes and to make friends of those willing to be friendly, there is little chance of trouble with the scattered bands of insurgents still remaining in the field.

General Guevarra saw the hopelessness of the insurgent struggle soon after he took command. In March he signified a desire to treat with the Americans with a view to sur-

AMERICAN SAILORS SENTENCED IN VENICE

VENICE, ITALY, April 28.—All the members of the crew of the United States cruiser Chicago, arrested for disorderly conduct here yesterday, have been sentenced to terms of imprisonment ranging from three to four months each.

Captain Robert P. Wynne, commanding the marine guard of the Chicago; Robert E. Ledbetter, assistant surgeon of the Chicago; Lieutenant John S. Doddridge, of the Chicago, and a marine named Wilfred Langley, who were arrested Friday night on the charge of disorderly conduct, were brought up at the San Marco police court here today.

Captain Wynne was sentenced to four months and ten days imprisonment. The other prisoners were sentenced to three months imprisonment. All the prisoners were sentenced to pay costs and damages.

rendering his forces. He was far up the Gandara river, however, in the midst of a mountainous region that the Americans knew to be almost invulnerable against invasion. It was feared the wily leader might be laying a trap to ambush and massacre any American force that might be sent to him for the purpose, ostensibly, of arranging terms of peace.

STARTS ON HAZARDOUS TRIP.

In consequence of their distrust of everything of a Filipino nature, whether dealing with the Tagalogs of Luzon or the more intellectual, but fiercer Visayans of Samar, the Americans decided to proceed cautiously. General Grant was given two gunboats, the Florida and the Base, and a large body of troops and sent up the Gandara to the rendezvous selected by General Guevarra. It was a hazardous mission. The expedition found in time, however, that Guevarra was sincere.

When General Grant reached the trying place Guevarra kept his promise. He surrendered himself as a prisoner of war and with him Rafael Sebastian, Abaki, thirty-eight other officers and the privates of the command.

The trip down the river to the coast was without special incident.

General Grant is a son of General U. S. Grant, who conquered the armies of Lee in the American civil war and who afterward was twice president of the United States. General Grant's expedition up the Gandara came to an end and his success was announced on the anniversary of his distinguished father's birth.

FORCES GIVEN UP IN NEGROS.

Captain L. W. V. Kennen, of the Sixth infantry, reports from the island of Negros the surrender of the Ladrones leader, Rufo, with 158 of his men and men of his command, together with twelve guns, 140 bolos, seven spears and a few revolvers and daggers.

Captain Kennen says this surrender means the opening up of the whole of the southern coast of the island of Negros. After Papa Ito Rufo was the most important Ladrones chief on the island. He promises to force Papa Osio and his few remaining followers to surrender.

Papa Ito was appointed a colonel in the insurgent army by General Malvar a year ago.

LOUIS FOX WOULD RETIRE

RESIGNS AS MANAGER OF BIG BAKING COMPANY.

Desires to Devote His Attention to Other Interests—It Is Not Yet Accepted.

Louis Fox, founder of the big baking concern at Calhoun and Jefferson streets, which was later purchased by the National Biscuit company, desires to retire from the active management of the institution, and it is learned that his resignation is now in the hands of the company's general office at Chicago.

Mr. Fox is in New York upon a business trip and could not be seen today, but others connected with the institution are of the opinion that the resignation has not yet been accepted for the reason that the company is loth to dispense with the services of Mr. Fox as manager. The latter has been desirous of stepping out of the active management for the past year in order to devote attention to his multiplicity of other business interests. It is said his successor is likely to be some other prominent stockholder, who will be named by the executive department at Chicago.

Mr. Fox has no intention of parting with his stock in the National company.

NAVAL PROGRAM

HOUSE COMMITTEE REPORTS THE NEW BILL.

SOUNDS PESSIMISTIC NOTE

AMERICA'S NAVAL PROGRESS NOT STRIKING.

GERMANY GAINING OVER US

WILL BUILD WARSHIP AT THE GOVERNMENT YARDS.

Washington, April 28.—The naval program for 1903, as presented in the naval appropriation bill and accompanying report filed today by Chairman Foss, of the house naval committee, is one of unusual interest. The report does not take as optimistic a view of our naval progress as is generally held and Mr. Foss points out that comparatively few of our ships have any real fighting value. He accompanies this with a statement of the enormous naval armament and programs of other countries, particularly Germany.

It is shown by the report that the total number of vessels of our navy, built and building, is 138 and the total cost will be $235,062,800. The report adds:

"While we have built and are building, all told, 138 ships, yet comparatively few of them have any real fighting value. Our naval progress lies almost entirely in our 18 battleships, 8 armored cruisers and 21 protected cruisers. The rest of our ships would cut but little figure in actual war. Ships of the battle line practically alone determine the naval strength of a nation."

FOREIGN NAVAL PROGRAMS.

Referring to the foreign naval program the report says:

"Of all the countries Germany has been building during the last few years faster than any of the others. Her shipbuilding program started in 1896 and will be completed in 1903; possibly in 1907, instead of 1916 as first planned. This program will give her in all 35 battleships, 14 large cruisers, 36 small cruisers and 66 torpedo boats. After the completion of this program the plan contemplates new constructions to replace ships which, though still serviceable, may have reached the prescribed age limit."

Concerning new ships for our navy the report says:

"The committee recommends that for the purpose of further increasing the naval establishment of the United States the president have constructed two first-class battleships carrying the heaviest armor and most powerful ordnance for vessels of their class upon a trial displacement of about 18,000 tons, and to have the highest practical speed and great radius of action, and to cost, exclusive of armor and armament, not exceeding $4,212,000 each; two first-class armored cruisers of about 14,500 tons trial displacement, to cost, exclusive of armor and armament, not exceeding $4,639,000 each, and two gunboats of about 1,000 tons trial displacement."

"In view of the fact that there is some public sentiment favorable to building ships in our government navy yards, it has been deemed advisable by the committee to insert a provision in the appropriation bill of this year leaving it in the discretion of the secretary of the navy to build any or all ships in government yards, but making it mandatory on him to construct at least one battleship or one armored cruiser in such navy yard as he may designate, as an experiment."

COST OF WARSHIPS.

"The complete cost of the two first-class battleships, two first-class armored cruisers and two gunboats, with total tonnage of 63,000 tons, will approximate $29,500,000. These battleships and cruisers will be larger than any heretofore authorized by congress, and the plans recommended by the board of construction have already excited the favorable comment of the naval authorities abroad. The committee is of the opinion that in recommending the above naval program it is making a substantial and healthy increase of our navy, and one which will meet everywhere with popular favor."

Other interesting features of the bill are provisions for a board of naval officers to recommend a site for a naval training station at some point on the great lakes; an increase of the enlisted force of the navy by 3,000 men; provisions for a new navy ration, as reported by a naval board; an increase of the number of cadets at the naval academy by 500.

The detailed statement shows that the appropriation bill carries $77.

ANNOUNCES A NEW MOTOR.
New York, April 28.—Elisha J. Hunt declares he has discovered a motive force that will develop energy until the machine wears out. "I fully believe," he said, "that before the year is out I shall be exhibiting an auto-carriage that will run from New York to San Francisco without stopping or costing one cent for fuel. It will start and stop simply by pressing a lever. The secret is magnetism. The magnet will be adjusted to keep a steady pull on the driving mechanism and will renew its vitality from the electricity in the air."

Colds
You first take cold, then you cough. Then you have a doctor. He says it's bronchitis, and he orders Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is his favorite prescription for colds and coughs. If he knows of anything better, tell him to give it to you.

"I had a very severe cough for many weeks. Nothing relieved me until I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This rapidly and entirely cured me."

ARE AFTER CELEBRITIES.
The Fort Wayne branch of the United Irish League is in correspondence with several noted Irish orators in an endeavor to secure them to speak at the mass meeting soon to be held in this city in the interests of the league. J. F. Finerty, of Chicago, Mr. Redmond and Mr. Devlin are to be communicated with and there is a strong probability that at least one of the famous trio will be secured. The league held an enthusiastic meeting in Library hall last evening and took in ten members.

CUBA TO PAY FOR FREEDOM.
Miami, Fla., April 28.—Secretary of War Root, Mrs. Root and daughter arrived here from Cuba yesterday afternoon on board the government yacht. The secretary says that no claim has been presented by the United States for the settlement of the sums expended in freeing Cuba, but that the matter will be taken up when the Cuban government has been perfected. Regarding the trip Secretary Root said: "My visit was for the purpose of arranging for the transfer of the island to the Cuban government May 20. Seven artillery companies, consisting of 800 men, will remain in charge of the guns, ammunition, etc., that will be retained in Cuba for the United States naval stations. The troops will be stationed at Havana, Santiago and Cienfuegos."

"New good digestion waits on appetite, and health on both." If it doesn't, try Burdock Blood Bitters.

Diphtheria, sore throat, croup. Instant relief, permanent cure. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At any drug store.

"Care the cough and save the life." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures coughs and colds, down to the very verge of consumption.

"I had a running, itching sore on my leg. Suffered tortures. Doan's Ointment took away the burning and itching instantly, and quickly effected permanent cure." C. W. Lenhart, Bowling Green, O.

Three thousand bolomen of Sgar have surrendered and the insurrection in that island is believed to be effectually wiped out. The natives have probably just heard of General Smith's order to Major Waller.There is some promise of relief from the beef trust. The combine simply raised a majority of the people out of the game and the loss on reduced consumption is a deal less than that which would come from a lower price. A good many will not buy meat at present prices and many more simply cannot.There is revival of the project to build an electric line from Lucasport to Kendallville, and recent developments give promise that it will be constructed. From Warsaw to Kendall-ville the line would serve a great area of rich farming country that is now inconveniently situated as to railway markets. As prospect of the construction of this line brightens, prospect of construction of the Fort Wayne and Cincinnati roads away. There is now said to be little probability of that enterprise being brought to any tangible issue this year, if at all. It is muchto be regretted. We believe this to be one of the best interurban railway propositions ever considered with reference to Fort Wayne. It does not offer competition with steam railroads, but opens to this city a great section that is now without and badly needs some kind of a railroad service. It is the more disappointing to have this project fail, because until lately the promise that the line would be built seemed so flattering.William Waldorf Astor is to be made a British peer in time to cut ice at the coronation of Edward VII. He will be created Baron Cliverton of Taplow, and in name if not in other respects, he will be the peer of any lord in Britain.
Astor has proved himself the most conspicuous man who ever had a chance to be something better. In view of all his efforts to secure elevation to the peerage he should be dubbed Cliverton of Stooplow. The king, who is reputed to despise the self-exalted American most cordially, will probably have to lay a brick on his gable when he bestows the title.J. Sterling Morton, whose death has just occurred, was too strenuous a partisan to receive at this time a just estimate of his worth. He had offended too many men with whom he disagreed on public questions. When time has cooled the feelings of such Mr. Morton will be remembered and respected for the great worth that was in him. He was a tremendously earnest and honest man; so much so, indeed, that it was quite difficult for him to concede possession of the same qualities by an opponent. He was the bitter foe of Mr. Bryan, and perhaps the reason may be found in Mr.
Bryan's earlier political successes in Nebraska. At all events, from the campaign of 1896 Mr. Morton fought Mr. Bryan tooth and nail, and a sort of continuous duel was maintained between them. Mr. Morton was an ardent gold standard man, and no democrat was earlier or more vigorous with a denunciation of the Chicago platform and Mr. Bryan than was he.
As Mr. Cleveland's secretary of agriculture, Mr. Morton injected some vim into that new executive department.
He was a trusted adviser of his chief and it is not to say too much in declaring him one of the most conspicuous and impressive members of the Cleveland ministry. He will be long remembered as the founder of Arbor day in this country and when it is remembered how rapidly the forests have been destroyed during the past quarter of a century, his creation of a beautiful and practical sentiment that in time will do much to restore the forests, deserves most glowing praise and a perpetuated memory. It will be well hereafter in all Arbor day observances to let the occasion partake of the char-

SHOT IN A SALOON BRAWL.

Muncie, Ind., April 28.—In self-defense last evening Harry Kern, 21 years old, shot James L. Tarrar, 26, and the latter is dying at the hospital with a bullet through the right lung. The men were at the Grand saloon, in the suburb of Whitely, quarrelling, when Tarrar said: "I am from Kentucky," drew a revolver and shot twice. The second ball plowed a furrow along Kern's right side, just under the skin. Kern then pulled his revolver, a .32-calibre, and fired two shots at close range. The second shot took effect. Tarrar resides at Jamestown, Ky., and has been visiting relatives at Hagerston, five miles north of Muncie.
His young wife has been sent for.
Tarrar does not want his assailant prosecuted, confessing that he "started something and lost out," but declares that he is too game to die. It is said by some of the spectators that both shots were chambered. Kern was placed in jail, head being refused, but the officers are confident the shooting was justifiable on his part.

RAINS IN THE WEST.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 28.—Central Iowa experienced the benefits of a heavy fall of rain. The storm lasted for three hours and the soil is now in excellent condition.Kansas City, April 28.—A heavy rain fell last night in southeastern Kansas and southwestern Missouri, accompanied in places by severe hail. At Lawrence, Kan., the water fell in torrents. It improves crop conditions greatly.

IN MEMORY OF INGERSOLL

HIS CHARACTER LAUDED BY ELOQUENT SPEAKERS.Good Sized Audience at Temple Theater Listen to Judge Sparks and Col. J. A. Scott.The Masonic Temple parquet floor was well filled last evening by a miscellaneous audience assembled to listen to a "trinity of tributes" to the memory of Robert G. Ingersoll, referred to as "America's philosopher, patriot, philanthropist," but more commonly known to the rank and file as one of the country's greatest orators. The affair was under the direction of John A. Scott, of this city, and so far as stage setting was concerned, was one of the most delightful events that has occurred at the Temple for moons. Mr. Scott is nothing if not artistic, and the setting of the stage with things so common as flowers and United States flags was his triumph and masterpiece. Beluck's orchestra of ten pieces discoursed the most patriotic of patriotic airs at intervals, while Miss Swank, a delightfully embarrased little miss of probably twelve, acquitted herself quite cleverly as a musical prodigy doing impossible numbers on the violin. Miss Alvera Scott, daughter of the director, gave with fine effect a declamation entitled, "The Signing of the Parchment," referring to the achievement of the Declaration of Independence, and afterwards followed with a recitation in verse. Director Scott, after the first number by the orchestra, introduced Judge Charles S. Sparks, of Cincinnati, as the president of the evening, and the judge in turn introduced the real spirit of the occasion Judge Sparks delivered an ostensible oration upon the goodness and loveliness of the character of Ingersoll, during which he took occasion to disseminate some original views of his own, not all of which were tasteful to many of the audience who came to honor the memory of a brilliant man with whose views they were not in entire accord, but whose manliness, citizenship, benevolence and philanthropy all could conscientiously revere. A climax of his peroration was that Ingersoll was "a thousand and thousand times better for the world than all the gods that have ever disturbed the minds of men." Speaking truthfully of Judge Sparks' fifteen-minute talk, it is doubtful whether it produced the effect for which it was intended. Mr. Scott followed Judge Sparks in a tribute to Ingersoll which required an hour for its delivery. Mr. Scott gave an explanation for his interest in the memorial a friendship of many years standing with the deceased statesman and a personal knowledge of his great magnanimity and goodness of heart. Most of his address was delivered with great animation from manuscript, but every line of it bespoke careful study and intimate knowledge of the subject matter. His personal tribute to Ingersoll was tender and pathetic and in the narrative he alluded to him as the absolute peer of Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson, Shakespeare, Goethe, Burns and others of the men who moulded minds and fixed destinies of countries and nations. In conclusion, Mr. Scott said that the ceremonies were semi-religious in character, inasmuch as the man in honor of whose memory they were being held was a man with a religion of his own, and that no religious meeting would or could be complete without the passing of the bat. He explained, however, that the collection to be taken was not for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the meeting, all expenses of which had already been provided for, but that the entire proceeds of the collection would be sent to the committee at Peoria, Ill., which has in charge a fund for the erection of a memorial to that city's acknowledged greatest product, Robert Green Ingersoll.The Ingersoll memorial must be classed among the successes of the year.

POLICEMAN KILLS THIEF.

Chicago, April 23.—In a pistol fight between two policemen and five burglars here early today one of the alleged thieves was killed. Policeman O'Connor saw two men, one of whom he recognized as a thief, standing in front of a store on Archer avenue at Loomis street. When he approached the men opened fire, fleeing at the same time. The officer gave chase, returning the shots. The firing attracted the attention of Policeman Herman Maronde, who came hurrying past the store just as three more men came out of a side entrance.
A pistol fight between the trio and the policemen then began, and one of the men was shot through the head, dying instantly. Neither of the officers was hurt.

TRIAL OF A PRINCESS.

Cape Town, April 28.—The trial of Princess Radziwill on the charge of forgery in connection with notespurporting to have been endorsed by the late Cecil Rhodes, but which the latter repudiated, began in the supreme court here today before the chief justice, Sir J. H. Devilliers.
The princess pleaded not guilty and counsel for the defense applied for a postponement of the trial in order to obtain evidence from England. The application was refused. There are twenty-four counts in the indictment. Though Rhodes and Schultze, the two principal witnesses, have died since the case was first filed, their evidence, in the form of affidavits denouncing the signatures on the notes as forgeries, holds good.CASTORIA

THE GREAT CANADIAN CURE

"WRIGHT'S RHEUMATIC REMEDY"

Is making cures where all other means have failed.
Can you doubt such evidence as this?

PERU, Ind., Feb. 25, 1902.

It was while working in the Rolling Mills at Bellefonte, Pa., about six years ago, that I was first taken with "Sciatica" Rheumatism. I called in my physician, who prescribed for me, but gave no relief. I was compelled to take to my bed after a year's suffering. The physician of the company gave me up and said that my case was incurable and would speedily end in paralysis. My wife then sought another physician of note, who attended to me for about a year and who said that I could not be cured. I had been in bed for nearly two years suffering with everything, with such relief as hypodermic treatment given.
After being given up by the two physicians, through the influence of friends I was taken in as an inmate of the city hospital at Williamsport, Pa., and received the best treatment that hospital afforded. I remained about eleven weeks and was then discharged by the attending physicians as incurable and returned to my home. After several months at home, I was again sent to Williamsport, Pa., hospital, to be under the personal care of Dr. McCormac, a Specialist of reports.
There crippled and almost helpless said that my case was hopeless, and I
After five weeks under his care he saw another year I laid at my home again was returned to my home. Feels without benefit, and as a last and was treated by the local physipital at Lock Haven, Pa., and recourse I was sent to the city hos staff of physicians, who at the end mained there under the care of them did not do anything for me, and for of five weeks told me that they could home at Howard, Pa. I remained the third time I was returned to myor three years, when my family brought me to this city last October. I was barely able to move on crutches. While at the depot at Columbus, Ohio, I was spoken to by a gentleman who said that he had been cured of a bad attack of Sciatica by the use of "Wright's Rheumatic Remedy," and advised me to try it, and I was also advised by my sister-in-law, who said that this medicine was doing a great deal of good. It was upon the strength of such strong testimony that I procured a bottle, and to my great surprise, the awful pains that I had been bearing for nearly six years ceased before I had been taking your W. R. R. two weeks, and I began to feel better, and have been gaining in health and strength every day since. My right arm and hand were useless. Now the full use has returned. My limbs, that I could not bear to have touched, I can now use and can walk and go around as usual. I can hardly comprehend that after so long a time, being given up by three hospital staffs and three different physicians, that I am feeling so well, and now on the way to again being able to work and be of use and service to my family by the use of your wonderful W. R. R.

monial in my presence and personally gave it to me of his own free will.

Dyspepsia CureIf you have indigestion don't resort to stimulants to force your stomach beyond its strength. It is only because it is weak and tired that it fails to perform its task. A stimulant may lend false strength for a time but the very reverse of the effort the abused organ will make, weaken it more than ever. With the reaction following the use of the stimulant will consequently come keener suffering than before. Nor will the stomach respond so readily to the next treatment of a similar character. With each repetition conditions will be worse than before. What the stomach wants is rest. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will furnish such a rest. It digests what you eat. All other preparations lack one or more of the natural digestants. Consequently they can't effect a complete cure. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure contains them all. It acts just as the stomach acts. While it does the stomach's work the stomach is resting the rest which it needs to restore it to healthy condition. "I used to suffer so from indigestion that even a soda cracker or glass of water would cause agony," says H. L.
Wharton, New Belme, N. C. "I commenced using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it soon cured me." Weak and sickly children thrive on it.

Elkhart sports are willing to buck with money their fellow citizen, John Outerson, as the prize sleeper of the state. He is driver of a meat wagon and fell asleep while making his rounds. His horse stopped on the street car track and a car hit the vehicle, badly wrecking it, but the somnolent driver slept peacefully on in spite of the shock.

A wholesale jail delivery at Wabash was stopped because of discovery of the plot by Sheriff Stewart's little boy. The lad was outside the jail and noticed a bolt fall from an upper window. He made an examination of the window and found a man sawing at the bars, and immediately alarmed his father, who investigated and saw that several bars had been severed.

The music of a graphophone led to the arrest of boy thieves and the location of their storehouse at Michigan City. A graphophone was stolen some time ago and the music that came daily and nightly from such an instrument at the home of Mrs. Julia Wright caused an investigation, and in the basement of the house was found a dry-load of plunder, presumably stolen by Mrs. Wright's young sons.

Hartford City is likely to be the home of a co-operative store, on account of the prevailing high prices. A movement is on foot among the glassworkers of that city to organize a co-operative company with a capital of $25,000 to conduct a general store for the benefit of the shareholders. The shares are placed at $25 each and limited to ten shares to a person. A capitalist of that city has agreed to erect them a suitable building.

BOTHERS 'EM A BIT.

London, April 28.—The speech of the United States secretary of the treasury, Mr. Shaw, at Pittsburgh, at the banquet April 26, in celebration of the late General Grant's birthday, has thus far passed unnoticed by the London press, with the exception of the Globe, which is exceedingly wrathful at such a responsible politician "tickling the ears of groundlings with a speech full of menace to America's only friend among the powers of Europe."

After quoting the speech, the Globe continues:

"We are not greatly concerned either for the threat or the crude vulgarity which causes Mr. Shaw to apply it to a particular power; but what impresses us with a sense of American decadence is the manner in which the absurd speech was received. Were an English minister of Mr. Shaw's position to make a similar allusion to a foreign power all the chancelleries of Europe would be convulsed. But England heeds it not a whit, and the rest of the world shrugs its shoulders and talks about diplomacy in shirt sleeves."

MAY BE THE PAWNEE.

Detroit, Mich., April 28.—A Journal special from Port Huron, Mich., says: The captain of the barge Sacramento reported here today that he sighted a quantity of wreckage on Saginaw bay Saturday afternoon during the terrific storm, which evidently came from some steamer. It included a deckhouse, lifeboat, a water barrel and a lot of lumber. The steamer Pawnee has not been heard from since the storm and there are fears that the wreckage may be part of her.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, April 28.—Wheat in the grain pits at the opening today had to work against the depressing influence of rains in all the wheat and corn states east of Kansas. July wheat started $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ lower at 75 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 75 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢. Cables were a trifle higher but rather slow; receipts were slightly improved and world's shipments were bearish in their increase. Trade was slack the first hour, though some light commission houses buying sent July to 75 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 76¢. The quiet nature of the market, however, eased prices again and July steadied around 75 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. Local receipts were 23 cars, one of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 230 cars, making a total for the three points of 253 cars, against 237 last week and 357 a year ago. World's shipments were 8,963,000 bushels, compared to 7,470,000 bushels last week and 7,794,000 bushels a year ago. Breadstuffs on passage decreased 632,000 bushels.

A fair demand for cash wheat pushed July up to 76 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. Late reports of rains in Kansas and more liberal farmers' deliveries of wheat in the northwest, however, caused early buyers to turn heavy sellers. Prices slumped and July closed weak 1¢ to $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ depressed at 75 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

July corn opened a shade to $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ lower at 63 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 63 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ on rains. Cables were only slightly higher and Danubian shipments were heavy. Local shipments, however, were good and on a little buying by the leading bull house prices advanced to 64 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ for July. Trade was quiet and on the small demand prices eased and hung around 64¢. Receipts were 180 cars.

July corn sold up to 64 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ on moderate buying, but the wheat break took corn prices back with it and July closed easy, $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ lower at 63 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. Liberal receipts, rains and large shipments eased oats at the opening. July (new standard) opened a shade to $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ lower at 37 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 37 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ and eased a shade farther. Business was quiet and prices hung between the opening figures. Receipts were 193 cars.

Provisions started out a little lower on the grain showing, but recovered and made fair advances on a light demand and better prices for hogs at the yards. July pork opened unchanged at \$17.05, advanced to \$17.17 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and eased to \$17.07 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. July lard started $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ lower to unchanged at \$10.05 to \$10.07 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, and July ribs $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ lower at \$9.45, sold to \$9.55 and eased to \$9.52 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

The first two coaches were thrown on their sides. All the passengers were taken out safely. made man of wealth. When he retired a few years ago from the management of the great Goodson Iron works it was with the intention of traveling to regulate his health. Hard work had worn him out. Some years ago he had a severe attack of blood poisoning. The rich man laughed scornfully. His friends persisted, and, still laughing, he tried the medicine. "If you convince me," he said, "that this medicine is the great tonic and purifier you claim, I'll go back into the harness and make it famous." He was cured. So were three of his friends. He kept his word, and is devoting his life to the remedy that cured him, and is now president of the Levee Medicine Co. As bright-eyed and energetic as a boy at the age of 45 years, he is a living advertisement for his own medicine. This wealthy man will take time to send you a personal letter if you will only ask him and your company physician. Dr. Whitford will give your case personal attention free of charge. Write today. Your druggist has Levee's Blood Remedy. Mr. Goodson says positively that he can cure the worst cases of Rheumatism, Catarrh, Gonorrhea, Scrofula, Blood Poison, or any ailment arising from impure blood, even including Cancer.

COMPANIES JOIN INTERESTS

ELECTRIC LINE MEN MET IN FORT WAYNE.

Logansport, Rochester and Northern and Indiana Northern Were Merged Saturday Evening.

As the result of an important meeting of prominent Indiana electrical line men held in Fort Wayne Saturday evening, the Logansport, Rochester and Northern and the Indiana Northern companies joined interests, and the companies were merged into one.

The meeting was held at the Wayne hotel, was attended by directors of each of the companies, those present including George F. McCulloch and C. W. McGuire, of Muncie, representing the big Indiana Northern company, recently organized at Indianapolis with a capital stock of $3,500,000, and President Joseph T. McNary, Walter A. Osmer and Seth M. Velsey, of Logansport, and John E. Beyer and George W. Holman, of Rochester, representing the Logansport, Rochester and Northern project. The magnates came into town quietly, completed the consolidation without difficulty and departed as quietly as they came.

The directors of the Logansport and Rochester line transferred the stock of their company to the Indiana Northern company, receiving in return shares of the latter stock of equivalent value, so that the Logansport company has been practically swallowed up by its larger rival.

The merging of the Logansport, Rochester and Northern Traction interests with those of the Indiana Northern Traction company is said to practically insure the construction of the line to Kendallville, which the directors of that line have tried to finance for almost two years, but without success. The Logansport parties interested in the merger state that according to the terms agreed upon all of the present stockholders of the Logansport, Rochester and Northern line will continue as such and will be associated with the enterprise as heretofore. One of the reasons assigned by them for the merging of their interests with the McCulloch interests is that they desire to protect themselves from the Wabash River Traction company, otherwise known as the Boyd syndicate, which they claim is trying to shut out all other interurbans from Logansport. The latter, however, claim that they are willing that other interurbans enter the city and that they are prepared to make liberal traffic arrangements to allow them the use of their tracks.

WAS A LIVELY RUNAWAY.

A mishap to one of the big tank wagons of the Standard Oil company precipitated a lively runaway on Wayne Trace this morning. One of the front wheels of the vehicle came off and the frightened team dashed away at a mad pace, throwing the driver from his seat and overturning the wagon. The driver escaped injury and the damage to the outfit is merely nominal.

SUIT IS DISMISSED.

The injunction proceedings recently filed by Emmet Martin against the board of public works, growing out of the Buchanan street paving matter, was taken up in the Superior court this afternoon, set for trial May 1 and later dismissed. This leads to the presumption that the board at its meeting this afternoon will take up the ordinance with the petitions of residents along that thoroughfare, which have been running under lock and key at the city hall for several days. It probably signifies, also, that asphalt will be the material chosen.

SAYS SHE IS PERSECUTED

GRACE BLAISING FILES ONE MORE PETITION.

Asks Superior Court to Restrain Her Husband From Pursuing Her. — The Court News.

The Blaings, of New Haven, continue to keep the superior court pretty busy. This morning Grace Blaising filed a petition before Judge Aiken asking that her husband, Frederick Blaising, be restrained from interfering with her in any way. She alleges that she has been persecuted by her husband, her husband's father and her husband's sister, Alice Blaising. She says that she has a divorce complaint pending and that since the filing of those proceedings she has been subjected to continual abuse; that her husband has occasionally beaten her, threatened her, has taken her child away from her and continues to threaten her with bodily harm. She therefore prays that the court restrain her husband, the said Frederick Blaising, from in any way interfering with her or her child, and be enjoined from entering upon the premises of her father, with whom she has now taken refuge.

The court upon hearing the arguments granted a restraining order against the defendant and fixed the date for final hearing on May 2.

Judge O'Rourke will today hand down a ruling on the application for a new trial in the Branstatter will case.

The county commissioners are today engaged in bridge inspection in the northern tier of townships.

ANNUAL OPENING.

Fort Wayne Outfitters Co. Keep Open House Today—Thousands Call.

Today was the anniversary of the opening for business in this city of the Fort Wayne Outfitters Co., and to celebrate the occasion in a manner that would be gratifying to their many friends and patrons has been the study of the proprietors, Messrs. Hallenstein & Israel. That they have acquitted themselves admirably is the verdict of the thousands who called at the store today. To every adult visitor was presented a cut glass pattern toothpick holder, and there were a number of special articles marked so low in price for the occasion that it was virtually a gift to the purchaser. The large salesrooms were crowded to their fullest capacity all day and words of praise were heard from all for the handsome line of furniture and house-furnishing goods carried by this popular house. The rooms were handsomely decorated and courteous attendants were on hand to answer questions and explain the merits of the goods. No attempt was made to sell goods, as the crowd was so large that it would have been almost an impossibility to do so.
